

Involuntary Muscles Control pupil dilation

Internal Organ

Protected by the cornea

What is IrisGuard Technology

IrisGuard Technology is based on the science that every human eye is different, providing a unique identifier for every person in the world. It exploits the varied characteristics of the human iris and delivers accurate, fast and secure biometric personal identification solutions.